continue to see Tomnahurich Hill, grand views of Inverness and the Caledonian Canal Locks . The name Inverness comes from the Scottish Gaelic “Inbhir Nis” meaning the mouth of the River Ness. The Burgh of Inverness was granted a Royal Charter by King David of Scotland in the 12th century and has grown steadily ever since. It has always been the administrative, distribution and cultural centre of Northern Scotland. Through the last quarter of the 20th century it was one of the fastest growing towns in Western Europe. This was rewarded by Inverness being granted City status at the millennium. Afternoon/Evening at leisure. Overnight at Hotel in Inverness

Breakfast at hotel Glasgow Hop on Hop off Let City Sightseeing show you all the things to do in Glasgow, from excellent museums, art galleries and beautiful parks, there is something for all ages in this exciting Scottish city. In addition, our friendly pubs, welcoming cafes and bars, and lively night clubs help to make Glasgow one of the new preferred destinations for short breaks for the younger and older generations. City Sightseeing’s Hop-on, Hop off bus tours are the ultimate way to visit this vibrant city, which is packed with breath-taking sights and attractions. Why not join us on our instantly recognizable red buses for an entertaining and colorful insight into Glasgow’s past and present. From the top deck of the tour bus you will be amazed by the beautiful landscapes and exceptional architecture that this city has to offer. From famous art galleries and museums to attractive parks and countless shopping opportunities there really is something to suit every taste. Hop off the tour bus and visit the Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum showcasing striking exhibitions in 22 themed modern galleries, this cultural treasure trove is one of the largest museums in the UK welcoming visitors of all ages. The museum largely caters for the kids who can actively take part in events throughout the year and workshops during the school holidays, which are specially designed for them. Why not visit another one of Glasgow’s leading attractions; located at Glasgow Harbor you will be amazed as you explore the last remaining Clyde built sailing ship. The Tall Ship provides you with a fascinating history and represents an impressive independent museum dedicated to the preservation of the Glenlee. Take a tour on City Sightseeing’s distinguished red buses for the opportunity to see Glasgow at its very best. Whether you stay on for the full loop listening to the informative audio multi-lingual commentary or talented live guides that are available on selected tours, or hop off on route at our designated bus stops to visit each attraction, we aim to make your sightseeing experience one of the greatest things to do in Glasgow.
